Bus rates 2010

Travel to Scandinavia across the Baltic Sea just as flexibly as on a motorway, but in a much lovelier and more relaxed setting! Use the ferry break for a visit to one of our restaurants, take a look at the wide range of goods in the Scandlines onboard shops or the border shops at the ports of Puttgarden and Sassnitz, or just let the wind caress your face. Our captains will look after the sailing. 7 routes, 13 ships, over 275 sailings daily and about 80,000 buses conveyed annually - Scandlines doesn't just have one of the densest and best performing network of routes in the Baltic, but offers your and your customers sailings around the clock, loads of combination options, customer-friendly cancellation periods, one-stop service and plenty more.

Cancellation periods Puttgarden-Rødby, Helsingør-Helsingborg and Sweden-Ticket via Puttgarden

up to 8 calendar days before sailing	no cancellation fee
from 7 days up to booked departure	50% of the confirmed ticket price
no-show or cancellation after departure	80% of the confirmed ticket price

Cancellation periods Rostock-Gedser, Sweden-Ticket via Rostock, Rostock-Trelleborg and Sassnitz-Trelleborg

up to 13 calendar days before sailing	no cancellation fee
12-8 calendar days before sailing	50% of the confirmed ticket price
from 7 days up to booked departure	70% of the confirmed ticket price
no-show or cancellation after departure	80% of the confirmed ticket price

The general terms of transportation of Scandlines Deutschland GmbH apply.

We ask you to note that, owing to the continuing major fluctuations in fuel price, we are compelled to impose a quarterly-adjusted fuel. This surcharge is not included in the bus rates. Please find out more on our website www.scandlines.de under „Gruppen“ about applicable surcharges.

Bookings must be made in writing at a Service Center. With a booking, the general terms of transportation of Scandlines Deutschland GmbH are accepted. The booking only becomes binding for Scandlines Deutschland GmbH when it is confirmed in writing to the applicant. All prices given are net. All prices in euros. Errors and omissions excepted.
